TRYAVNA ART FESTIVAL is organized by the first art television in Bulgaria - Live 7 TV, with the support of Tryanva Municipality and community center "Pencho Slaveykov 1871".

Live 7 TV broadcasts live online symphonic concerts, opera and theater performances, as well as pop and rock concerts. The media made possible the first internet event broadcasts from Bulgaria Hall, Dohodno Zdanie in Ruse, the auditorium of the Sofia University and many other places in the country.

Live 7 TV also executed the first online broadcast of the world competition for conductors in Spain whose chairman of the jury was maestro Gennady Rozhdestvensky. This event introduced the media to the European spectators. Till present, Live 7 TV broadcasts the most prestigious competitions and festivals in Bulgaria.

The television supports own festival symphony orchestra, chamber orchestra and travelling cinema, and the balance is over 105 thousand hours of air, viewers from 168 countries and 6040 cities in the world.

For its 12-year history, Live 7 TV has established a public character, which remains one of a kind over the years in the Bulgarian media space. Till present the TV has the ability to broadcast LIVE cultural events from each point of the Earth.
