TRYAVNA ART FESTIVAL is organized by the first art television in Bulgaria - Live 7 TV, with the support of Tryavna Municipality and community center "Pencho Slaveykov 1871".

Live 7 TV broadcasts symphony concerts, opera and theater performances, as well as pop and rock concerts live on the Internet. The media made possible the first live transmissions of many cultural events in Bulgaria.

A year after its creation, Live 7 TV made the first online broadcast of the world competition for conductors in Cadaqués (Catalonia), whose chairman of the jury was Gennady Rozhdestvensky. This Event brought the media into the field of view of the European spectators. To date, Live 7 TV broadcasts the most prestigious competitions and festivals in Bulgaria. The television maintains its own festival symphony orchestra, chamber orchestra, traveling cinema and according to the statistics over 131 thousand hours of air have been watched by viewers from 183 countries around the world.

During its fifteen-year history, Live 7 TV has established its public character, which has remained unparalleled over the years in the Bulgarian media space. By now, the television has the ability to broadcast LIVE cultural events from every corner of the Earth.
